RESPONSIBILITIES AND DUTIES

- Conduct autism awareness activities: activities include outreach to area families/providers and the general public about autism spectrum disorders, information about best practice in autism intervention services, and about the services provided by AAROC to families and the community.
- Assist with provision of parent/family support activities critical to providing "hope, direction and support for families living with an autism spectrum disorder": activities include parent training, telephone technical assistance, and information/referral services for families, and assisting AAROC Central office with scheduling, when available, "special topic" workshops for parents, clinicians, educators, and other members of the general public.
- Assist with developing area AAROC Community Advisory Committees: activities include recruiting interested parents, self advocates, clinicians, educators and community leaders for community advisory committees dedicated to assisting AAROC with identifying the needs of individuals diagnosed with ASD and their families
- Coordinate AAROC fundraising activities in NWAR

QUALIFICATIONS AND REQUIREMENTS

- Experience working with individuals with ASD. Preference will be given to candidates who are the parent of a child diagnosed with ASD
- Experience planning, coordinating and executing fundraising events
- Occasional travel to remote sites for coordination of AAROC activities as needed
- Good written and verbal communication skills
- Experience and strong skills using Microsoft Office Suite software
- Must be self-directed and able to work with minimal supervision
- Open availability during AAROC activities, including evenings and weekends as needed
- Must possess a valid unrestricted drivers license and have access to a properly insured vehicle
- Must be able to lift up to 50 lbs
- Must be willing to submit to background check(s) and drug test(s)
